

EXECUTIONER INDIA PALE ALE

Executioner is brewed for the famous Roman beer bar "Mastro Titta". The bar is named after the most efficient executioner of Rome.

It is a co-op between Brian Davis of Søgaards Bryghus and Christian Skovdal Andersen of BeerHere. The idea was to brew something that was flavourful yet thirst quenching in the heat of Roman fall. It is done in the spirit and tradition of Brian Davis' home country: USA.

Available in 20 liter steel kegs and 30 liter keykegs.

Brewed from Pale ale malt, caramel malt and US hops (Citra, Centennial, Amarillo).

80 IBU, OG: 1070, ABV: 7

Executioner IPA is brewed by "Beer Here" a Danish brewery project started by award winning brewer Christian Skovdal Andersen. The mission of Beer Here is to brew flavourful beer bending known conventions and styles.
